

APPLICATION FOR THE PEDIATRIC ENDOCRINE SOCIETY
PES INTERNATIONAL SCHOLAR PROGRAM – 2011

This completed application, the applicant's CV and bibliography, supervisor's letter of recommendation, and the host sponsor's letter of support should be sent by December 31st, 2010 to:

Alfonso Vargas, M.D.
Chairman, PES International Scholars Program Committee
Department of Pediatrics – Division of Endocrinology
Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center - School of Medicine
Children's Hospital - Research and Education Bldg., Ste. 4233
200 Henry Clay Avenue
New Orleans, LA 70118 – USA
TEL (504) 568-8189 FAX (504)8945139 E-mail: avarga@lsuhsc.edu

North American Sponsor:

Applicant:

Name:

Name:

Title:

Title:

Institutional Affiliation:

Institutional Affiliation:

Address:

Address:

Telephone #:

Telephone #:

FAX#:

FAX #:

E-mail:

E-mail:

Date of birth:

1. Applicant: (attach copy of CV, in English, and bibliography of applicant)

A. Current position and academic title, with dates held:

B. Describe the principal professional activities of the applicant (indicating approximate % of time devoted to (1) teaching (2) clinical research (3) laboratory research (4) patient care (5) administration

PES International Scholar Program

Application

- 2 -

C. Beginning at completion of high school, list in chronological order, the applicant's formal education and past positions (following completion of training). Indicate dates positions were held:

D. List all trips the applicant has made to North America in the past 10 years. Indicate dates of trip, duration, purpose, and sponsor:

E. Indicate which of the following applies to this applicant:

Speaks English fluently

Speaks English less than fluently

Reads English, but has difficulty with spoken English

2. Plan for use of the award: (Attach separate page) In 300-400 words, the applicant should describe the goals of the visit in the sponsor's unit. Describe the proposed activities of the scholar during the proposed visit. Indicate whether the scholar has had previous contact and collaboration with the sponsor. Indicate the proposed duration of the visit and the approximate dates.

3. Letter of support from the sponsor: (Attachment) This letter should provide information on how the proposed program will benefit the scholar and the scholar's endocrine unit, indicate whether additional financial resources for support of the scholar are available if needed, and provide any other details that support the scholar's application.